

English Freedom, Independency, and no
General Warrants for Ever.

To the Worthy unbiassed Liverymen of the City of London, residing in the ancient City and Liberty of Westminster.

YOUR Votes and Interest are desired THIS DAY for

John Wilkes, Esq;

The Defender of your Rights, Liberties and Property, to join those few upright and illustrious Liverymen that have already polled: Be not intimidated by Court Influence, Ministerial Frowns, or the fallacious Arguments of hireling Scribblers. EXERT yourselves in the Cause of LIBERTY, and future Ages will admire your Endeavours! and the ungrateful many that have gone contrary to their Consciences, will be struck dumb with your Praises!

N. B. The Globe Tavern, the Corner of Craven Street in the Strand, will be opened for the Reception of the True Sons of LIBERTY, with the Coach Makers Arms in Long Acre.

* * The Number of free and independent Voters that voluntarily polled for Mr. WILKES Yesterday, will we hope, be an Example for every Free-born Citizen, to follow and finish so laudable an Undertaking.

March 22, 1768.
